Art at A-Space

Contexts

Because art is one of the few means by which prisoners are able to express themselves, and because artwork so frequently accompanies book requests, in 1999 Books Through Bars began a prisoner art project.

The Contexts Collection of Artists in Prison represents some of the realities of prison life, a reality which many of us on "the outside" rarely see or consider. This selection of the Contexts Collection is being shown in memory of Barbara Hirshkowitz, curator of the project and long-time leader in Books Through Bars, who passed away in March.
